MONUMENTS.

The White Bronze Monument,

beautiful in design, appropriate in color, never tarnishes, chips or cracks, and science in its long search for something that would stand the frost of this climate for monumental purposes has at last found it in the White Bronze. It fills every wish. It is a beauty to behold. It will perpetuate the memory of loved ones, that future generations may bestow those little acts of kindness upon the graves after we have gone to our reward.

Four Great Sewers.

Every human body is equipped with a most elaborate sewage system composed of the Lungs, Skin, Kidneys and Bowels. To enjoy perfect health each sewer must be acting properly; failure on the part of any one results in disease and death.

When the Bowels refuse to do their part in relieving the system of the decaying elements in the body you must assist nature.

BRIDE WAITED 39 YEARS.

A Pledge To His Dying Father
Kept Him From Her.

Mount Vernon, O., May 15.—There has just been brought to light in this city a remarkable romance.

When the civil war broke out John Smith a stalwart young Southerner, living in Culpepper, county, Va., was in the North on business pertaining to a large tannery which was operated on his father's plantation. While in this county he was taken ill, and was cared for at the home of Thos. Howard, near Fredericktown.

For six months he was desperately ill, and during all this time was faithfully watched over and nursed by Miss Lucy Howard, the charming young daughter of the household. Their friendship ripened into affection and love, so that when young Smith returned to his Southern home he carried the promise of Miss Howard to be his wife.

Smith entered the Confederate service and became a conspicuous and daring subaltern. He was captured, but escaped. He was again captured, and was taken to Missouri, where he remained until the close of the war. He then returned to his old home which had been devastated. His fortunes were ruined, but together with his father he set about to recover them. In a few years his father died, and made a last request that the son remain on the old plantation and care for his mother.

Smith wrote to his Ohio sweetheart, and informed her of the barrier that his father had raised to their probable marriage, but promised that should she be unmarried after his mother's death he would claim her as his bride. Miss Howard promised to remain unmarried till Smith should be in a position to marry her.

About a year ago Smith's mother died, and the arrangements for the marriage were made. During all the thirty-nine years that the lovers had waited, their love never waned. They kept up a constant correspondence, and often visited each other's homes. During these years Smith has prospered, and is now considered a wealthy man. He is sixty years of age and his bride is sixty-one.

The Rough Riders.

So much has been said and written about the rough riders that went to Cuba, that Sells & Gray have engaged Capt. Wetherby and his troop of daring comrades to accompany this show and at every afternoon and evening performance give their thrilling exhibitions on horseback such as mount and dismount at gallop, Trooper turns somersaults and lights astride his horse. Riding bareback, hurdle jumping, sitting backwards and the Saber Drill. Troop Charge, picking up handkerchiefs at gallop and many other, daring feats that have never been equaled. All countries are proud of their soldiers, and especially are the citizens of the United States, and are ever ready to applaud their soldiers for their daring feats of horsemanship. Hopkinsville Tuesday May 29.

is health. The secret of health is the power to digest and assimilate a proper quantity of food. This can never be done when the liver does not act its part.

Do you know this? Tutt's Liver Pills are an absolute cure for sick headache, dyspepsia, sour stomach, malaria, constipation, torpid liver, piles, jaundice, bilious fever, biliousness and kindred diseases.

An Epidemic of Whooping Cough

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John E. Clifford, Proprietor Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by R. C. Hardwick.

Good character is above all things else.

A Follower of Measles.

In many instances a persistent cough follows an attack of measles. In speaking of this Mr. Walter B. Beal, editor of the Elkin (N. C.) Times, says: "Three weeks ago I had an attack of measles which left me with a bad cough. I took several doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the cough has entirely disappeared. I consider Chamberlain's medicines the best on the market. For sale by R. C. Hardwick.

The Tommy Atkins who shot a Boer boy of 12 years while the boy was trying to escape was a bloody minded beggar.

An Ancient Belief.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of acute or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the affliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by R. C. Hardwick.

The early butterfly that got into the capitol this spring may have heard the humming of the presidential bee.

Between the ages of fifteen and forty-five, the time when womanhood begins and motherhood ends, it is estimated that the aggregate term of woman's life is ten years. Ten years out of thirty! One third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed! Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal the bloom from the cheek, the brightness from the eyes, the fairness from the form. They write their record in many a crease and wrinkle. What a boon then to woman, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promotes perfect regularity, dries up debilitating drains, heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate womanly organs in vigorous and permanent health. No other medicine can do for woman what is done by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.
